

INCOMING MOBILITIES FOR FOREIGN STUDENTS

Whether you're seeking an internship or simply want to study in Lyon, the SEPR welcomes all profiles (Erasmus+ or other foreign learners) and offers a number of services to each and every applicant.

➤ Studies:

We offer you bespoke trainings in any of our expertise and fields, for short or long periods, preparation courses for French diplomas, academic semesters, etc.

Our international office team remains at your disposal to provide you with a solution tailored to your needs.

To obtain detailed information about our university-level courses, please consult our course catalogue.

For any other training, please contact us: b.petit@sepr.edu

Recognition of your studies mobility:

- ECTS credits:
ECTS credits are useful to organize exchanges and evaluate equivalences with other European training courses. As part as partnership agreements with our European partners, ECTS are defined to make sure foreign students obtain the ECTS credits they deserve.
- Grading system at the SEPR: the grading system in France ranges from 0 (mediocre) to 20 (perfect). In order to pass an exam, you will need a grade 10 or above.
 - Grade 0-5: extremely weak
 - Grade 5-10: mediocre
 - Grade 10-12: satisfactory
 - Grade 12-16: good
 - Grade 16-20: excellent

➤ Placement in a French company:

Our international office offers you support to find a hosting company in France. Contact us for further information: b.petit@sepr.edu.

No additional cost will be incurred to Erasmus+ incoming students (apart from costs related to insurance, student unions, or the use of miscellaneous equipment).

We are committed to provide Erasmus+ incoming students with support and guiding regarding administrative issues, including visas and accommodation.

Discovering Lyon:

The city of Lyon is recognized by the UNESCO as a World Heritage Site.

Being a student in Lyon gives you a real opportunity to discover French and “Lyonnaise” culture, experience local food, wander and stroll in the old city (le Vieux Lyon) and near the river banks.

Must-sees in Lyon:

There are many areas that you can't miss when visiting Lyon: Croix-Rousse, Vieux Lyon (old city), Place Bellecour, Confluence, museums ...

Lyon is well-known for its gastronomy and its famous typical local restaurants “Bouchons”: try “quenelles”, a white sausage made from flour and fish or “la tarte à la praline” for a sweet treat.

Lyon, city of light: each year, at the beginning of December, the city organizes and hosts the internationally recognized “fête des lumières”, a 4-day festival which highlights various artists. Buildings, streets, squares and parks are lighted up all over the city to create a magical atmosphere. This festival attracts 1.8 million visitors each year.
